..... The training has reminded me of things I had forgotten including
..... how I can change my reality on a moment to moment basis.

..... It has brought together years of personal development work
..... that I have done and empowered me in a very practical and
..... real way. I feel for the first time that I have some very
..... powerful tools to help myself and others - it has moved from
..... being conceptual and something that I sometimes was able to
..... apply to something that I am going to live - starting NOW!

..... The coaching tools are well conceptualised and structured and I
..... believe that anyone who uses these in the right manner and
..... is dedicated can really make a difference in people and be a
..... great coach.

The Name of the Academy truly carries the outcome of the training: Transformation.

Presentation: Dynamic & engaging

Participation of attendees: We were participating from the first day till the last moment.

Isabel and Erik live what they teach - they are more examples than teachers. Their own life transformation, on its own, is transforming in return.

I feel energized and focused and know, not just believe anymore - I know that I am living the best version of myself.

Erik & Isabel are non-judgmental and empowering.

Their presence exude vibrations of success.

I will not be the same - I am not the same after this training.

I highly recommend the Academy and speak life into all who are entering it.

Truly Transformational - not informational!
Paul

I enrolled for this training to learn more coaching skills and to be certified properly. What a surprise I found! I learned more about myself than coach skills. And that was my biggest discovery: I cannot coach people and influence them if I, myself, is not coached and transformed in my inner being. I am now much more conscious about why I limit myself so much in life! I am looking forward to excel in developing my real potential, to excel in coaching skills and to experience an explosion in my coaching practise. What motivates me the most during the training was Burk's commitment, discipline, efforts and authenticity as a person and in his professional training outlook. I highly recommend anyone who is eager to learn and grow, to choose this Transformation Coaching Training!

This training was absolutely outstanding. I never imagined that the techniques could have brought immediate results - and they were significant too. This is personal transformation like no other. The training was intense but and at the same time energising. I have often thought how blessed I have been that I was drawn to Burke and Isobel's training. Burke has amazing insight and has developed an unbelievable programme.

I highly recommend this programme to anyone who wants to actually LIVE and not just exist.

Burke & Isobel, you have both been such an inspiration. I thank you from the bottom of my heart!

Blessings ~ thank you for sharing your knowledge & experiences.
