I understand life in totally different way. I have learnt to ~~go~~ let go of things, situations that I have no control over. I feel complete and whole again. Like a new born baby ☺ Growing up in a traditional indian home, well that ~~wasn't~~ was quite difficult, and yet, I ~~am~~ raising my girls the same. Now I know I can change those beliefs. And I Thank You - with love & Light always.

I started the day on ~~my~~ ^{5th} my birthday - The course was a new beginning a new year for me.

But, your course really create a new start for me.

I was so stuck in all of my old beliefs that I did not see any purpose or reason why I should be on earth. Now I have a vision and a purpose. Mentally it was difficult but the emotional freedom that came with it was mind-blowing.

Thank you!! My goal in life to help people, I can feel, see, touch and smell

Thank you for opening that possibility for me. You are a TRUE MASTER

Kind Regards Louise

This training has been one of the most physically and emotionally ~~taxing~~ taxing experiences of my life and oh man it was so very worth it!!! What a journey!!! I have accomplished more for myself in these 5 days than in how many years of my life. The power I feel right now - words can't even describe. I feel so exhilarated and so motivated but even more than that, in the longest time since I can remember I am finally ready to take my place as the extraordinarily exceptional person I have been put on earth to be. Thank you Burk & Isobel. See you at the Masters.

I set out on this journey with a hunger to learn the tools to change myself and thereby help change the lives of others. There are so many promises out there, courses, programs and events filled with hype and cheap tricks - barely giving you enough to occupy your time while present in the program. However, this is not so for Transformation Coaching Academy! The training given, the content, detail and amount of well constructed content is phenomenal. As someone that enjoys learning - there is more for me to integrate at home and so many tools to address any issue I can think of. I've been frustrated for a long time, trying my best to deal with and transcend my context and past - with a lot of effort and struggle - often with little change. In one week I've transcended what I've been working at for over a decade. Erik and Issobel are authentic, down to earth, passionate and professional. Their program works and I am excited to use what I have learned to shape an exceptional and powerful future for myself and make a lasting impact on the world. These days have been well spent and I am sincerely thankful for being part of this process.

The training received during the ~~next~~ past 5 days gave me new hope and peace in life.

Personally I had to leave a lot of beliefs, attitudes and preconceptions already forgotten. Having them, it did not help at that time major areas received opened new doors to a future and the acknowledgement there of getting it with grace.

As for my career, I came into this training with the intention of using it for career and personally, but I am given some serious thought to applying this for more than just that, changing my career and achieving the "purpose" for myself.

It was also eye opening to see such techniques not ~~being~~ ^{using} or abusing and that it ~~is~~ is aligned spiritually, perfectly.

Thank You

This was one of a lifetime experience! Very, very challenging and I had a lot of anxiety and stress at the beginning, but the more techniques we did, the more I felt free from limitations and more and more powerful and courageous, because of God leading me and carrying me through. I cannot wait to successfully have helped my first client to become transformed, but the most important journey for me is to be transformed myself, to be able to change things in my life for the better and helping me to really set goals, seeing the outcome and ^{reaching} doing them one by one, completing every one of them. I have learned a lot about myself, especially that I have the courage and discipline to change! I also realized much more that God is the anchor in my life and that I'm going to even more spend time with Him every day.

The Transformation Coaching 5-Day training was indeed TRANSFORMATIONAL. The entire training session served as an army/military bootcamp for my mind, spirit & even my fragile body. During the training sessions, I had the opportunity to confront my 3 Biggest enemies of success & abundance that were currently present in my life. The training allowed me to confront my limiting beliefs about myself & my abilities to attain success, abundance, influence & happiness. During the training, I also had the opportunity to attack a significant part of my EGO, which had constantly sabotaged my LEVEL OF CONSCIOUSNESS, thus limiting how much of life I can really experience. As a result of the training, I have started to formulate & instill NEW & EMPOWERING BELIEFS that will now be used to stir my newly found enthusiasm for life. With the skills I have obtained from the training, I'm now better equipped to pursue my true PURPOSE in life, as I have created an INSPIRING LIFE VISION & new Goals for myself.

The training opened so much of myself which has been lying dormant for more than 13 years. It even took me back to a state of feeling free of so many things in the past which had put me in bondage.

I feel so much more my authentic self, and are able to face my new career as a Transformation Coach, by helping other people dealing with problems in them-selves and ~~so that~~ I also can save marriages.

So ~~be~~ that people can have a free and abundant life as God has planned it for us.

Lots of Blessings To Bert and Izabel

This transformation coaching training provided me with insight into a) How to live, enjoy and experience the "now" to live the life you already have

b) To recognize how your ~~own~~ unconscious believe structure created over a long period of ~~over~~ your life a "different, difficult and false" life that if you do not recognize and change these believes it could destroy your world and life that you are meant to live.

c) A reality check on what I am made-up of and what I can achieve and ~~what~~ ^{how} I should see and experience success to be

d) To remember you can only change the world and people if you change and take responsibility

e) You will know what your purpose is if it no longer feels like work.!

These past 5 days I know for sure has changed my life completely and have significantly catapulted and expedited my wish to live a purpose driven life that I dreamed and am still dreaming for myself. This changed and confirmed my entire perception of why I/we exist and what my purpose is - to be ~~with~~ my highest self, as God wanted. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

What I have learnt from this training is the unblocking techniques which I can use to reach my desired goals. It also gives me opportunities to learn how to communicate with my conscious mind and sub-conscious mind.

The main issue I taking with is to believe in myself, feed my mind with right information and act on whatever I decide.

Challenge I found during training; long hours of training especial training adults could limit their grasp of information.

I am glad I was accorded this opportunity to make change in my life and my community.

Thank you so much!!

Transformation Coaching Academy is a unique program! It is informative and challenging. I was pushed out of my comfort zone and into a better version of myself. The program took my limiting beliefs and turned them into great goals. I have once again realised how strong, powerful and uniquely authentic I am!!
