This training was unique I am unique and it was a perfect match for what I was looking for. Both Burk & Isobel were incredible presenters/coaches and I am amazed that so much exciting new information has been pumped into my head & heart. This training was a realisation in two ways 1) A realisation about who I was and to some extent why & who I am meant to be and are already. 2) It reconfirmed my career choice as my passion for people and expanded the way in which I can not only help them but transform them into positive happy beings while I love what I do, develop myself have ample free time and financial freedom.

I am excited for the journey ahead and am grateful for everything in my past that led up to this moment, good & bad and thankful I got this training through Burk & Isobel.

This training consolidated everything I have learnt the past three years. Before, I had a fragmented understanding of the concepts taught, but it all came together for me now. Some concepts were only partially understood, i.e. Newtonian law vs.

Quantum Physics, but the penny dropped this week. On the practical side of things, Burke's approach in teaching the techniques are very effective - making use of demo's, line-by-line explanations and then personal practical examples. I cannot imagine there to be a course covering all aspects of building a coaching ~~practice~~ business like this one. The additional resources (pre-course work, cd's, dvd's, demo video's) is a true value-add and lays the perfect foundation for starting a coaching business from scratch.

Then, Lastly, apart from the value, the course is very enjoyable because of Burke's sense of humour and analogies used.
