Wow. What an unbelievable 5 days. There is magic in this room.

I am overjoyed to experience not only the realisation of my limiting beliefs, but to remove them and replace them with such empowering beliefs is incredibly powerful. Burk, Thank you for enabling me to coach other people. I have found my passion. I have found my love and I have most certainly found the belief in myself.

This morning I was still unsure of exactly what I would write as a testimonial, but as I sit here covered in goosebumps and filled with tears of joy my subconscious has provided. Thank you Burk & Isobel for changing lives and I PROMISE to pass this on. Thank you as well for the privilege (spelling?) of sharing the training with your kids. What an experience and I cannot recommend this training highly enough. My life has completely changed.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you

This course has opened up my mind to new and amazing opportunities. It has assisted me in removing all the negative beliefs, emotions and the "old" self-image that I had about myself AND helped me to recreate the new ME! I feel light, peaceful, energized and motivated to live my PASSION, which is to change people's lives! My soul has never ever been fired up like this before and I'm ready to go out there and make a real difference. I have learned all the tools ~~to~~ that I need to develop and change my life, but most importantly, change other people's lives. I initially thought that the course was about tool to help others, but I'm amazed that it starts with personal transformation first. It is the best investment that I have ever made on MYSELF!! Thank you Burk. Your mission is mind blowing! This is what I needed to start living a LIFE OF PURPOSE!

I am very grateful to Rust and Isobel for this life changing program. I am being transformed, I am new like as I am being born. I have so much confidence more than I have when I joined the program. I am at peace, I am calm, I feel so much happy inside. I signed up to this program because of the war I had within, I was angry, in pain, now even my temper has changed, I was short temper. I am motivated I even forgot that I had issues. I feel so much joy. My children will love me (their new mother) because they were victims of my past life.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you!

I signed up to acquire a few tools and techniques for life coaching as an add-on to my current role. I even got my employer to pay half as they would benefit from the skills I obtain.

I knew from the pre-work that the practical would be life-altering, but I could never have anticipated the mental and emotional freedom ^{I got} with the techniques and therapies I learnt.

Burk reignited my life purpose when he inspired me/us to raise our consciousness and help people heal their problems. I am convinced that I will be establishing my full time transformational life coaching business faster than I thought.

How will I ever find the words to express what wholeness I'm feeling right now. Its a gift you have given me that cannot be measured in any way. I can only fake this higher consciousness and love and abundance, and go share it with the world, and hope in that way of being that it will remain and grow as an ever-flowing force within me, and everyone and everything I connect with. My ^{whole} ~~existence~~ has been about people, my passion for them and how to help them be. For the first time I have no doubt, no fear, no belief that will ever limit me again from doing what I am born to do.

Thank you for helping me find, save and love ME. Only now am I equipped to apply and live my purpose my passion.

Thank you for opening myself up to a higher love. Of Everything, and everyone. Also thank you for all the knowledged shared on NLP, Neurology, Quantum Physics, Finance, Business, Marketing and so much more!

You have completely transformed me on every level possible, and for that I am eternally grateful.

It is tough to put this experience into words because, it's more ^{of} a feeling~~s~~ or, feelings. If I look at myself now vs 5 days ago, I feel freer, lighter and yet 100% more confident and motivated.

I have been on other courses before (Demartini's Breakthrough experience being one of them) but, while I felt better after them, I wasn't transformed as a person. After Burk and Isabel's course, I know I ~~will be~~ am a better wife, mom, manager and a better me and that, with these techniques, I will ~~remain~~ continue to become even better and more magnificent, as I grow as a person and, as a coach. Thank you Burk + Isabel, THANK YOU!!

I am humbled ~~by~~ and grateful for the mind-blowing, empowering techniques & skills that I ^{have} acquired over these 5 days.

I did not have expectations on the practical training - thought it would be like other trainings where I would get new skills.

How wrong I was!!!

The passion Burk has for training and his desire for us to be the best we can be, affected each of us on many levels.

The way he explains the theory, the enthusiasm and excitement with which he demonstrates the techniques are in a way that you understand it perfectly, but it resonates deeper and deeper and you 'get it' in a ~~huge~~ 'huge' way that it changes your perceptions and life view - forever.

I am grateful for Burk, for sharing so open-heartedly his gift, knowledge, wisdom and time to ~~to~~ empower us.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude...

There are no words that can describe my gratitude

Thank you + ~~for transform~~ for giving me the space to transform like a caterpillar to an amazing butterfly.

Thank you for helping me find my way.....

I started my online coaching business a few months ago. My niche focus on helping entrepreneurs create ~~passion~~ ^{passive} income through creating automated systems in their businesses. Most of the entrepreneurs I work with never gets to the point of exponential growth because of their limiting beliefs. I've always had a passion for understanding the mind and why people make the decisions they do. A friend told me about the training and I knew I had to do this. To help my clients get rid of their limiting/negative beliefs and make profit in their businesses.

This training has given me more than what I expected. Not only do I now have the tools to better support my clients, I now FINALLY have the tools to better support myself and create the beliefs and habits needed to be the wife and mother I'm meant to be and also ~~grow~~ receive the wealth that's meant for me. My self image has been the biggest driver keeping me small & to scared to take up space in this world. Today I'm walking away with an amazing self image and confidence needed to live my full potential. Thanks Isabel & Burk
You changed my life!

This course has been incredible. I have went from dreaming and ~~hope~~ hoping, to knowing exactly who I am and what my future is. In a short period of time I have went from second-guessing most of my thoughts and feelings, to have certainty and confident about who I am and what I am capable of. I feel totally congruent, motivated, and unlocking parts of myself that I never knew were possible. Thank You Burk + Isabel, what you do for the world is magical and may all the Goodness you put into come back to you tenfold.
