The undescrivable experience of a Eternity, I can not place it in the right words as there are no words that can describe this STATE. the closest to it. it is Godley.

I am on the right path finally and this is the only foundation to start on, I feel spiritually ^{aligned} and I know now what is next by finding ones true self, and the inner passion that has now been awoken to go through this wonderful life but on a different level. the transformational coaching Academy is that exact "key" I have been searching for, and I am so grateful for having this potential and unlimited possibilities of creating my own reality finally unlocked, and Accepted. Bark & Isobel, Thank you, Thank you, Thank you from this lifetime and all those to come. Thank you.

This is my season, it's time for me to Arise and shine!! 😊

Burk & Isobel you are angels in human form sent by God to me, I came here after being diagnosed with severe depression disorder, a lot has been happening in my life. And I have been searching for something like this all my life. I am completely healed from all the traumas, garbages I have been carrying all my life, some unconsciously. I am transformed. I have been self sabotaging myself, judging myself and struggling to believe in myself. I have tried a lot of things, meditations, praying, fasting and many more. they worked for a period of time & then, ~~fell~~^{got} back to my old self. Little did I know that I have been carrying negative beliefs and limiting beliefs unconsciously all my life, had no good resources to tiproof from the foundation. I am ready to go out there and shine! I am ready to follow my calling that I have been running away from, just because I always thought, I am not good enough, "feeling small had been my best friend" but not anymore

These 5 days have been absolutely incredible; honestly I'm really struggling to express the Joy and Gratitude I'm feeling through my words. I've always heard about these types of courses but this has truly been the Best investment I've ever made. This course has taken my self-confidence and inner Power to the next level and I'm loving the feeling. This course has really put so much into perspective for me, and has ignited the flame for my passion and purpose. This course has also given me the tools that I needed to build an Incredibly Powerful and life changing Public Speaking Course of my own!! Burk and Isobel you will never fully ^{understand} ~~under~~ the impact that you've had on my life; but I just simply want to thank you from the ^{bottom} ~~down~~ of my heart. Thank you for being brave enough to live your passion, dream and purpose. You have now liberated me to do the same and empower the world one person at a time!! This is only the beginning.. I look forward to more growth on this absolutely phenomenal journey!!

The first thing/word that comes to mind is: 'Wow!!!'
I have done many trainings and read loads of books
but this is the first training where I know there is a shift in me. This has been one hell of a year (luckily not in a bad way ☺) and this was the cherry on top. I was very close to moving the date, again, and decided to push through, because I was meant to be on this course. Even my mother saw the change in me from Friday night, saying I don't look so drained anymore. The 'Bang' Therapy is an amazing tool to create a nearly immediate shift and I am thankful to Burk for being open to receive the knowledge to put this in a structured way to apply. Actually the structure part of how to apply all of this in a business, is fantastic!

Thank you, for using your gift, individually and as a team, to present us with courses to change
the ~~world~~ WORLD!! Can't wait to receive the gift of healing. ☺

I had a great experience in the past few days. I gained a lot mentally, emotionally the list is endless. I have never seen or felt what I felt my body is shocked at the wonders I felt in my spirit. God had a great purpose sending me here and I am forever grateful for receiving me. I always knew I had a healing gift however I have never in a million years that emotions could be healed never to be felt again without counseling. All my trauma's have been healed even some grudges I was still holding for my husband I don't feel anymore I ~~can~~ ^{have} now gone back to love him unconditionally and not looking at his past. Thank you so much my mental state is at its best and going forward the sky is the limit for me, I cannot wait for the next sessions.

I came into this training with a lot of anxiety, doubt and patterns of overthinking. Since day 1 of the training I feel calmer and that my mind is more sound. Burt is an amazing teacher and visionary and just his demeanor has had an influence on how I view things. I now fall asleep without the mind chatter & I am less affected by other's words and actions. I have faith that I have been given an amazing structure & techniques with which I will now use to transform my own life and others. My mind has been opened wide to the limitless possibilities that exist for me, my family & friends, and my clients. My gratitude overflows. Life transforming experience indeed!

This has by far been the utmost beneficial, empowering & life-changing experience, I walked in here on Wednesday, a scared individual with so much inner turmoil & conflict & I am sincerely grateful (and proud) to say that after five days, at the end of the beautiful experience, I am leaving as a different person.

Someone more aware, someone filled with optimism, confidence, self-love and so much more. I can't begin to express my gratitude. I feel so complete & whole, so at peace, which is something I've never experienced before. I owe it all to the absolutely spectacular & inspiring coaches & guides. The biggest, most sincerest thank you, to both Burk & Isobel. You both have changed my life & now I look forward to the journey ahead! Brand-new Aakifah is ready to experience, achieve, IMPACT & CONQUER.

There are not enough words in the dictionary that I could string together to fully convey how happy I am.

Words cannot begin to describe the exhilarating God given experience I went through during this course. I have been empowered and given the wings to fly. My traumas allowed me to experience all the learnings I had captured but had suppressed. The journey on the timeline back to the womb made me empathetic and understanding of my current. My relationships with my parents family children etc will never be the same again. I allow myself to set intentions and goals and heal as I go.

Both Burke and Leibel have a unique and powerful gift that allows me to live up to my own and allow others to experience the full me. In just 5 days I have allowed myself to be great and transformed under their guidance.

May God continue to bless you and lead and guide you as we all pursue our purpose. Love & Light.

It was such a journey and a process signing up for this training. I went through all the possible emotions you can imagine. Two days before the training as well as the night before I cried, tried to pull out, quit and run away but that did not happen. I made it and I am extremely grateful. I am grateful for all of it. The fear, the crippling anxiety because that was only part of the process to getting out of my comfort zone and getting my healing. There's a saying that people come and go but only a few will leave permanent foot steps in your heart and that's exactly how I feel about Burk & Isabel as well as each and every single individual I encountered and walked this journey with. Have you ever been so full, so content, so peaceful and complete and whole that you have no lack or want, this is how I feel. And it is not just a feeling but a complete empowered inspiration that is priceless!
Thank you, Thank you Thank you.

The transformation coaching system training helped me to heal, all the heaviness I have been carrying in my body. The trauma clearing exercised healed my body. I also learned to speak to my subconscious mind, & understand the language of emotions & energy.

Most importantly for me was the aha moment of going back to my childhood and realising that I have always being the person who loved to resolve conflict and create harmony. This is who I am the authentic me, this is my purpose. I lost it because life happened, but through attending Burk transformation coaching training I found myself, I Reconnected with my purpose, ~~at~~ this is me.

I am starting a new journey in life
, as the New version of myself. I have learned the power of surrendering to the universe, & how to ~~and~~ align my beliefs with the universe.

I feel content, fulfilled and enlighten
through ~~this~~ journey.

Thank you Burk,

As an entrepreneur and businessman with two companies to lead, and never worked for anyone else in my entire life - professional corporate challenges, disputes with clients, at at times taking office frustration and anger to my home, from this training I have learned and benefited a lot. My short-temper is gone. I have dealt through this amazing training to no longer be traumatized by the loss of my mom when I was young. I came here with self-doubt that made me question my business acumen and intelligence, that self-doubt is gone - I feel energized, fuelled and empowered, I can feel myself renewed and seriously on fire to attain more prosperity.

Thanks Burke & Isobel

This workshop brought a new version of myself by allowing me to tap inside - to the (Real-me). Today, I am so totally different than the 1st day I came in. I have discovered that nothing can hold me back, after rooting out the beliefs that I had for years. I have learned that it is important as human to always check your vibrations because they attract.

I have learned that the subconscious mind is a powerful tool that I must communicate with to store up positive information.

I have learned to distort negative beliefs systems and break them and made me free inside. I am feeling much lighter than the way I came. I know how what I focus on I create.

I am confident now because I managed to create a new version of me, no more doubtful. I learned that I am able to break the challenge before me - see it broken, won before I do.

I learned to enjoy the journey, see the end products that helps me to have positive vibrations and gives me peace.

I am so grateful I made it. I appreciate it so much.

Thanks to the Transformation Academy Staff!!

Occupation: EDUCATOR

In this course of Transformation Coaching, I have learnt and gained more knowledge about Beliefs and negative emotions that cause limitations in every aspect of our lives. These are the things that cause our lives to be stagnant and not move forward. We have been taught to blame circumstances and mainly people for all our mishaps and unsuccessful ventures. However, in this course I have learnt to take responsibility for all that happens to me and to live life consciously, with intentions instead of leaving my life to chance.

As an educator, I have learnt that we are born with all abilities we need to learn new knowledge. I will no longer call learners as unteachable, I will help them to overcome their limiting beliefs so they can master their school work.

As a mother and a wife, I have learnt that I am the problem not the children or husband, If I change, they will also change. This is phenomenal and I believe that from now onwards I will cooperate with the Holy Spirit and the laws of Nature to become a better version of Myself so that other people can become better also. Thank You Burk and Isobel. God bless You.

I believe that I will learn more from you that will move me from the low frequency level I am in to a new level where things will occur through Power not Force.

I believe that my life has completely changed and I will never be a nuisance to family and colleagues, I will be celebrated and no longer Tolerated.

Thank You.

I came to the training with so many fears and and some limiting beliefs I felt so dead in my life and found it difficult to envision my future
I did have some breakthroughs in inner conflict therapy
guilt and anger emotional healing

The major highlight came when we had to break our plants and it needed me to envision which I had struggled with for YEARS. It was a test of my life as I had to break my limitation. After the initial struggle
I did it HOORAY!!! I CAN ACTUAL DO IT!! I CAN AND I WILL CONTINUOUSLY BELIEVE THAT I CAN!!

When I attended the course during first day, I was full of anger.
The magic words that destroyed the anger and other negative emotions
as the techniques I learned on how to remove the problems that are in my subconscious mind that hold me back, focus on the past instead of the future. My self-image and self-confidence are back. The new techniques I have learned
at the course give me courage, inspiration and wisdom to face the world and change my life for the better, while helping other people to improve their lives and

Change South Africa for the better.

The negative emotions are tearing South Africa and the world apart.

This programme is contributing in bringing peace
and harmony in a small way.
The benefits I gained from this programme has already changed my life as there are strategies that I can implement already.
