Before attending this transformation coaching course I was completely and utterly burnt out physically but most of all emotionally. I had the harshest beliefs about myself, the most negative inner voice that I eventually surrendered to after many years of fighting against it. Just as I was about to give up completely, I came across Burk's transformation coaching, curiosity got to me and decided I want to give myself one more chance at living the life I know I deserve. Today after going through this most inspiring and most wonderful course, I regained the most motivated and best self. I feel so powerful and unstoppable. Feelings of anything is possible!
I am so grateful to Burk and Isobel.

This 5 day journey for me has been absolutely amazing! I arrived feeling nervous and a little lost in knowing who I really am. What has resonated the most for me is the "To become" aspect. I now comprehend how important it is to know myself, love myself, grow myself and become the best version of myself in order to achieve my goals and find true happiness.

I am so incredibly excited for my self-discovery journey that lies ahead for me. The tools and techniques I have learned I know will help me live the life I deserve; and empower my future clients to enrich and steer their lives to happiness and fulfillment. Burk and Isabel, you guys are phenomenal. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Wow! This course has really made me a whole new beautiful, Powerful and non-fearing woman. I came with an open mind that only had a vision of me sitting in a room with other people and just having a lecture standing of us and just teaching us about how you can coach or transform others. That perspective is all changed after the 5 Days. This has so much POWER and very much shows how our beliefs can stop us from believing more into ourselves. The relationship I have with myself ~~with~~ has definitely changed drastically and I am now ready to go out there to share and utilize the knowledge and Inspiration I have received in all aspects. It now depends on me to use the knowledge and Apply in me to others daily and to never doubt, be fearful, or even discourage myself. I want to be free spirited as it has drawn me to realising my spirituality and strengths

I am Powerful and Unstopable

I can do this

Thank you Burk +
Isobel

Burk and Isabel have been simply amazing. I started my training with little belief and confidence in myself. The change I have made now is unbelievable. They have really transformed me and my life. They have guided us every step of the way into becoming the person that we truly are.

I would have never thought on how much can be accomplished or what we can achieve.

It ~~have~~ ^{has} been a phenomenal, transforming experience and I am forever grateful that I was apart of it.

Thank you Burk for such an opportunity. ♡

What an amazing experience. It can only be felt. Truly breathtaking how much it reaches through to the deepest form of ones spirit. Transformed into what I aspired to become. The knowledge truly is of more value than money can buy. My subconscious is now programed to chase after everything I need to influence people to the deepest level. Techniques that can carry one far away from every negative thought that once ruled over me. Negative emotions are now a thing of the past.

Thank you for transforming my life
All the best Burk and Isobel.
