I came to this course in a time in my life where a change for me was vital.

I had been heading down an endless road going to nowhere for too long.

I can honestly say that this course is more powerful than any of the greatest, famous - self help "Circus" books and programs, that I have read about or watched on TV.

If you want to change your life - Forget about all other options and begin your journey here. It only gets better and better the more you apply yourself to it.

And Waite → You will learn about an even greater level of opportunity when you get here.

I'm not going to spoil it.....

I came to this training with the main purpose of empowering myself. I got much more than that... Being a school principal I became amazed at the incredible tools I can use to empower my teachers, who, in turn, will be able to use this information on their learners in class. The possibilities for making our country and the world a better place ^{then become} ~~are~~ staggering. This incredible information should become an integral part of the curriculum in schools and I feel so empowered now to make this happen, even if it is only on a small scale at first. I can't see how any person who wishes to improve ~~themselves~~ ^{him/herself} can really, effectively do so, without going through this truly amazing course.

I learnt too much, but to summarise I would say it was mind blowing and absolutely liberating. I have been challenged to come out of my comfort zone and not limit myself. Removing the gestalt was absolutely phenomenal. Burke is stunning trainer and has wealth of knowledge.

I feel like a brand new person and my confidence levels have doubled. I know that without a doubt I am limitless, only if I remove the ego and allow the Holy Spirit, the abundant Spirit to operate. I cannot wait to continue working on myself and write my life vision. This has been phenomenal and I am grateful to Burke + Isobel for dedicating their lives to helping us make the world a better place. I am so thankful. Thank you so much.

The course kick-started me into action and lifted my energy after a long "lock-down" internally and externally. It is jam-packed with techniques and brilliant ideas and I will need a month or two to absorb everything. Barhe is an energetic, enthusiastic man and a good advertisement for all entrepreneurs.

Isobel's energy is beautiful, although we saw far too little of her :((Thank you for your openness and willingness to share your pain to benefit others.)

Positive critique from a good place would be improving language skills and editing English grammar since this will open your work to a wider audience and benefit more people.

Thank you to both of you.
With Best, best wishes
Paulina

I gained ALOT of awareness on the parts of myself holding me back. I dealt with some conflicts & some negative beliefs. I have alot more clarity on the parts of my life I need to put my effort & focus into & believe this training gave me a running head start to applying the disaplincs i need to apply. Im ~~not~~ not as worried about the outcome and I trust what will be will be but i feel more committed to taking daily actions anyway. I have been strugeling with daily habbits I want in my life, starting & stoping but I believe i now have the tools to follow though.

Thank you
